Agenda

Permit applications: none

Standard Update Reports:

1. Playground Subcommittee Report and Planning Update (Carrier, Havlik): a successful joint meeting was held with Harbor Commission rep and mayor and hope remains; fundraising plans continue; a quote was received from a videographer to make a promotional video
2. Budget/Finance Report: somehow, still none
3. Round-robin reports:
 - a. Big Ravine/Iron Bridge (Havlik): Pine Bluff and Hemlock Heights need to be closed for mud season, Pete will hang signs and tape off threshold to these trails; SCH is the chosen planning entity to survey the Gil Larson trail.
 - b. All other parks are still snowy and so far fine.
 - c. Bayfield Area Trails Report (Havlik): In mid-June WISCORPS crew will work on Dalrymple for one day during their stay. We can give them a Honey Do List and provide them with a liaison. Otherwise, they will be focusing their efforts in Salmo.

New Business:

1. Recreational Trail Planning, Design, and Development Policy - HW: mark it up, share it with the public and get input
2. Recreational Use of Undeveloped Public Rights-of-Way Policy - HW: mark it up, share with the public and get input

Old Business:

1. Outdoor Recreation Plan Annual Review: It's time to create a new document by the end of the year! Again, engage the public! Motion to accept changes to the Outdoor Recreation Plan Annual Review Addendum (Rovi/Havlik, carried)
2. 2026 Priorities: Motion to accept the current 2026 Priorities list (Havlik/Rovi, carried)

Next Meeting: April 27th, 4pm - Brainstorm a new member!
